Education

- 1985: D. Phil, Modern History (History of Science), University of Oxford.
- 1982: B.A. summa cum laude, History and Science, Harvard University.

Departmental Academic Positions

- 2012-present: Acting Chair, Department of the History of Science, Harvard University.
- 2011-present: Director of Undergraduate Studies, Department of the History of Science, Harvard University.
- 2006-2010: Chair, Department of the History of Science, Harvard University
- 2004-2009: Harvard College Professor, Harvard University.
- 1995-present: Professor for the History of Science, Harvard University.
- 1991-95: Morris Kahn Associate Professor for the History of Science, Harvard University.
1988-91: Assistant Professor, Department of the History of Science, Harvard University.
- 1988-present: Voting Member, Department of Experimental Psychology, Harvard University.

University Appointment

- 1996-2002: Co-Director of the Harvard University Mind/Brain/Behavior Interfaculty Initiative.

Additional Departmental and University Service (currently active only)

- Chair, Search Committee, Tenure-Track Search in the History of Medicine.
- Harvard University Committee on Professional Conduct.

- Harvard University Library Collection and Content Development Review Committee.
- Harvard College Committee to Ensure Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching and Learning.
- Harvard College Standing Committee on Education Abroad.
- Harvard College Mind, Brain, Behavior Undergraduate Curriculum Committee.
- Harvard Extension School Administrative Board.

External Positions

- 1998-present: Board member, Mind and Life Institute.
- 2010-present: Life Fellow, Clare Hall, University of Cambridge, UK.
- 2003-2007: Founding Co-Editor (with Nicholas Rose,) of the social science journal, Biosocieties, London School of Economics.
- 2004-2007: Visiting Professor of Medical History, Bios Centre, London School of Economics and Political Science, UK.
- 2000-2002: Research Fellow, Institute for Advanced Studies, University of Bristol, England.
- 1993-99: “Core” member of the MacArthur Foundation Research Network on Mind-Body Interactions.

Languages

Excellent German; very good French; basic Spanish.

Teaching

(Undergraduate)

- Culture and Belief 34: Madness and Medicine: Themes in the History of Psychiatry.
- HS 171: Neurology and Narrative.
- HS 176: Evolution and Human Nature: Questions and Controversies.
- HS 177: Stories Under the Skin: The Mind-Body Connection in Modern Medicine.
- HS 97: Faculty head, Sophomore tutorial: Case-based Introduction to the Field.
- HS 98: Faculty head, Junior tutorial: Research methods in the history of science.
- HSCI S-178: Science, Medicine and Engineering in Victorian England (eight-week study abroad program, based at Imperial College, London); discontinued in 2010.
- HSCI-120: Science, Medicine and Religion in an Age of Skepticism (eight-week study abroad program, based at the University of Cambridge); launched in 2012.

- HS 99: I regularly supervise honors theses for undergraduates.

(Graduate)

- HS 310: Salon: An Introduction to the History of Science.
- HS 274: Freud and the American Academy.
- HS 275: The Minded Body.
- HS 278: In Search of Mind.
- April 26-May 5, 2012; Lead instructor and organizer of the second annual French-American graduate student collaboration between the Harvard department of the history of science and the Ecole Normale Supérieure.
- I also am currently the primary advisor for seven graduate students working towards their doctorates. I also advise Masters candidates, regularly do advanced reading courses for graduate students within and outside my own department, and support postdoctoral scholars.

Prizes, Grants, Fellowships

- 2011: Mind, Brain Behavior Faculty Grant (to mount a workshop in AY 2012 on the theme “culture under the skin”), Mind, Brain Behavior Initiative, Harvard University.
- 2011: Hauser Grant (to transform the departmental sophomore tutorial into a case-based, peer-led learning experience), Harvard Initiative for Teaching and Learning, Harvard University.
- 2011: International Experience grant (to develop new eight-week study abroad program, “Science, Medicine and Religion in an Age of Skepticism,” based at the University of Cambridge, with extended field trips to the Dorset “Jurassic coast,” Paris, and Lourdes), Presidential Fund for International Experience, Harvard University.
- 2010: The Carlson Award, New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center, “in recognition of contributions to the history of psychiatry and the neurosciences.”
- 2009: Walter Channing Cabot Fellowship “for distinguished accomplishments in the fields of literature, history, or art.”
- 2007: Phi Beta Kappa Alpha Iota Prize “for excellence in teaching 2008-2009.”
- Milton Grant, to fund preliminary research on a new book, “The Suffering Mind,” a synthetic history of psychiatry.
- 2004-5: Wellcome Trust Project Grant, “The Inner World of Brain Disorder: Romantic Impulses in the new Neurological Society.”
- 2002: Program Grant, Committee for Theology and the Natural Sciences Program Grant, to facilitate new forms of dialogue and scholarly understanding of relations between science and religion.

- 1999-2001: Epstein Foundation Research Grant (on the placebo effect).
- 1997: Waletzky Foundation Research Grant (cross-cultural studies of Chinese medical practices).
- 1993: Spencer Foundation Research Grant.
- 1991: National Science Foundation Grant; History and Philosophy of Science (declined in favor of NLM grant).
- 1991: National Library of Medicine Publication Grant, Special Activities Section.
- 1986-88: Alexander von Humboldt Postdoctoral Research Fellowship (Freiburg, Germany).
- 1985-86: Wellcome Trust Postdoctoral Research Fellowship (London, England).
- 1982-85: Marshall Trust Scholarship.
- 1982: Bowdoin Prize (Harvard University's preeminent essay prize).
- 1982: Captain Jonathan Fay Prize, Radcliffe College (award for most outstanding female graduating senior at Harvard).

Collaborative Projects

- Ongoing: Consultant and script writer on a documentary dealing with the stigma of mental illness, "The Madness Project," to be produced by Alice Makepeace Film Productions.
- February 10-12, 2012: Humanities Initiative Workshop, Mind and Life Institute, hosted by Harvard University.
- July 25-August 6, 2011: "Cognitive Science/Neuroscience and the Humanities," Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences (with Stephen Kosslyn and John Onians).
- April 26, 2010: Lead organizer, "What Makes a Life Significant? A Panel Discussion in Memory of William James " undertaken on behalf of the Harvard Division of Social Sciences, Harvard University.
- 2001-3: Chair and Lead Organizer, Harvard Placebo Study Group, featured in the documentary, "Placebos: Cracking the Code."
- September 13-13, 2003: Co-organizer and co-convenor of a public conference (sponsored by the Mind and Life Institute), "Investigating the Mind," that engaged neuroscientists, cognitive scientists, Buddhist scholars and the Dalai Lama of Tibet, Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
- 1998-2000: Principal investigator of an intercultural collaboration involving traditional Chinese medical practitioners from Beijing and laboratory scientists from the United States.
- 2000: Principal architect and author of a web-based structured database and publication, "Trance Passages: a Hypermedia, Multidisciplinary Guide." 1996-97: Chief visiting curator of a public exhibition, "Emotions and Disease," National Library of Medicine.
- 1996-98: Academic consultant to a 1998 PBS documentary, "In Search of Ourselves," part of the American public television series, "Science Odyssey."
- 1986-89: Consultant on a public exhibition, "From the art of memory to the science of the mind," that opened in Florence, Italy, 1989.

Recent (from 2009) keynote and named lectures only:

- May 16, 2012: Hazen Lecturer, History of Science Society, The NY Academy of Sciences, New York.
- May 6-8: Commentator, Interdisciplinary Workshop on “Brain Plasticity,” Rockefeller University, New York.
- March 24, 2012: Keynote Speaker, “Being Human 2012” Public Symposium at the Palace of Fine Arts, San Francisco.
- February 23, 2012: “Bodies Behaving Badly: Reflections on Mind-Body Medicine,” Departments of Philosophy and Neuroscience, Connecticut College, New London, CT.
- January 20, 2012: Keynote Speaker, “Sociosomatics,” University of South Florida, Boca Raton, FL.
- June 5-6, 2011: “Integrating humanities, arts and social sciences into neuroscience research.” The Wellcome Trust “Understanding the Brain Challenge Review.”
- November 2, 2011: Invited commentator, “The Autism Matrix,” The Social Science and History Association, Boston, MA.
- December 8, 2011: “Connections” Lecturer, “Bodies Behaving Badly: What we Learn from the History of Mind-Body Medicine, and Why We Should Care,” Smith College, Northampton, MA
- March 1, 2010: “The Inner Life of Broken Brain,” Martin A. Entin Lecture in the History of Medicine, McGill, Montreal.
- May 19-20, 2010: " Eric T. Carlson Memorial Lecturer, “The Schizophrenogenic Mother: Where she Came From, Why She Still Matters,” New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center, New York.
- Nov 1, 2010: Plenary speaker, “The Placebo Effect: What's Interesting for Scholars of Religion?” American Academy of Religions, Atlanta, GA.
- Dec 7, 2010: Witmer Lecturer, “From bumps to brain scans: the project to know the mind by studying the brain (and why it isn't so simple),” Hunter College High School, New York, NY.
- Nov 5, 2010: Keynote Speaker, “Body and Culture: Lessons from the History of Mind-Body Medicine,” Body and Civilization (2010 Peace BAR Festival), Kyung Hee University, Seoul, South Korea.
- October 2009: Keynote Speaker, “Faith, Healing and the Placebo Effect,” The Foglio Conference on Spirituality and Medicine, Center for Ethics & Humanities in the Life Sciences, Michigan State University.
- September, 2009: Keynote Speaker, “Faith, Healing, and the Placebo Effect: Historical Reflections,” Duke Center for Spirituality, Theology and Health, Duke University.
- September, 2009: “Is Spirituality Good for Your Health? Historical Reflections on a controversial research enterprise,” Journalist convention, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

- April, 2009: “A History of Compassion in the Clinic and the Lab,” Meditation and Psychotherapy [public conference with the Dalai Lama], Cambridge Hospital, Harvard Medical School.

Selected radio and television presentations:

- More than 40 national, regional, and web-based radio interviews on themes from my history of mind-body medicine, The Cure Within, including interviews with National Public Radio, Canadian Public Radio, and BBC World News (2008).
- “The Science of Happiness,” (Austrian radio) (2008).
- “Good Morning America” (television) with Diane Sawyer (2008).
- “The Placebo,” Radio-Lab (2007).
- “Aphasia,” The Infinite Mind (2007).
